

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. We have laws to make sure candidates from both sides get equal airplay during election season, and Sinclair wants to sneak around this.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Please help stop Sinclair from writing their own rules. Thank you.
